By this Order, the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board ("Board" or "PCAOB") is censuring Stein & Company, LLP ("Firm"), a registered public accounting firm, imposing a civil money penalty in the amount of $5,000 upon the Firm, and requiring the Firm to undertake certain remedial measures, including to establish policies and procedures, directed toward ensuring compliance with the engagement quality review requirements applicable to audits and reviews of issuers; and censuring Jon H. Stein, CPA ("Stein"). The Board is imposing these sanctions on the basis of its findings that the Firm and Stein (collectively, "Respondents") violated PCAOB rules and standards in connection with two of the Firm's audits of an issuer client.

I.

The Board deems it necessary and appropriate, for the protection of investors and to further the public interest in the preparation of informative, accurate, and independent audit reports, that disciplinary proceedings be, and hereby are, instituted pursuant to Section 105(c) of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, as amended (the "Act"), and PCAOB Rule 5200(a)(1) against Respondents.

II.

In anticipation of institution of these proceedings, and pursuant to PCAOB Rule 5205, Respondents have each submitted an Offer of Settlement ("Offers") that the Board has determined to accept. Solely for purposes of these proceedings and any other proceedings brought by or on behalf of the Board, or to which the Board is a party, and without admitting or denying the findings herein, except as to the Board's jurisdiction over them and the subject matter of these proceedings, which is admitted,

ORDER

Respondents consent to entry of this Order Instituting Disciplinary Proceedings, Making Findings, and Imposing Sanctions ("Order") as set forth below.¹

III.

On the basis of Respondents' Offers, the Board finds that:

A. Respondents

1. Stein & Company, LLP is, and at all relevant times was, a limited liability partnership organized under the laws of the state of California, and headquartered in Glendale, California. The Firm is registered with the Board pursuant to Section 102 of the Act and PCAOB rules and is licensed by the state of California (license no. 7410). At all relevant times, the Firm was the external auditor for the issuer identified below.

2. Jon H. Stein, CPA, 56, of Glendale, California, is a certified public accountant licensed by the California Board of Accountancy (license no. 54438). At all relevant times, Stein was the sole owner of the Firm and was one of the Firm's two accountants. At all relevant times, he was an associated person of a registered public accounting firm, Stein & Company, LLP, as that term is defined in Section 2(a)(9) of the Act and PCAOB Rule 1001(p)(i).

B. Summary

3. This matter concerns the Firm's failure to comply with Auditing Standard No. 7, Engagement Quality Review ("AS 7"), with respect to two separate audits of one issuer client, HealthTalk Live, Inc. ("HealthTalk"). In the Firm's audit of HealthTalk's 2013 year-end financial statements and its audit of HealthTalk's 2014 year-end financial statements, the Firm failed to obtain an engagement quality review of the audits even though an engagement quality review was required under AS 7.

4. This matter also concerns Stein's failure to comply with PCAOB rules with respect to the same two audits. Stein took or omitted to take actions knowing, or recklessly not knowing, that his acts and omissions would directly and substantially contribute to the Firm's violations of PCAOB standards.

¹ The findings herein are made pursuant to the Respondents' Offers and are not binding on any other person or entity in this or any other proceeding.

ORDER

C. Respondents Violated PCAOB Rules and Auditing Standards

5. In connection with the preparation or issuance of an audit report, PCAOB rules require that a registered public accounting firm and its associated persons comply with the Board's auditing and related professional practice standards.²

6. For audits of financial statements for years beginning on or after December 15, 2009, AS 7 requires that an engagement quality review be performed on audits and interim reviews conducted pursuant to PCAOB standards.³ AS 7 also provides that a firm may grant permission to a client to use the engagement report only after an engagement quality reviewer provides concurring approval of issuance.⁴

7. In addition, PCAOB rules prohibit an associated person of a registered public accounting firm from "tak[ing] or omit[ting] to take an action knowing, or recklessly not knowing, that the act or omission would directly and substantially contribute to a violation by that registered public accounting firm of the Act, the Rules of the Board, the provisions of the securities laws relating to the preparation and issuance of audit reports and the obligations and liabilities of accountants with respect thereto, including the rules of the Commission issued under the Act, or professional standards."⁵

8. As described below, Respondents failed to comply with PCAOB rules and standards.

Audits of HealthTalk's Financial Statements

9. At all relevant times, HealthTalk was a Nevada corporation headquartered in Sparks, Nevada. HealthTalk's public filings disclose that it is in the business of providing traditional, plus natural, health and wellness information services through its real-time interactive website, HealthTalkLive.com, and through a live radio show. At all relevant times, HealthTalk was an issuer as that term is defined by Section 2(a)(7) of the Act and PCAOB Rule 1001(i)(iii).

² See PCAOB Rule 3100, Compliance with Auditing and Related Professional Practice Standards.

³ See AS 7 ¶ 1.

⁴ Id. at ¶ 13.

⁵ See PCAOB Rule 3502, Responsibility Not to Knowingly or Recklessly Contribute to Violations.

ORDER

10. The Firm was engaged in 2013 to audit the financial statements of HealthTalk for the year ended March 31, 2013. The Firm issued its audit report dated June 20, 2013, which was included in HealthTalk's September 3, 2013 amended Form S-1 filing, September 24, 2013 amended Form S-1 filing, October 9, 2013 amended Form S-1 filing, and two October 10, 2013 amended Form S-1 filings. The Firm improperly issued that audit report without obtaining an engagement quality review and concurring approval of issuance. As a result, the Firm violated AS 7.

11. The Firm also was engaged to audit the 2014 year-end financial statements of HealthTalk. On July 7, 2014, HealthTalk filed a Form 10-K with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The Firm improperly issued its audit report dated July 3, 2014, which was included in HealthTalk's Form 10-K filing, without obtaining an engagement quality review and concurring approval of issuance. As a result, the Firm violated AS 7.

12. Stein knew, or was reckless in not knowing, that he was directly and substantially contributing to the Firm's violations of AS 7 when he caused the Firm to grant permission to the client to use the June 20, 2013 and July 3, 2014 engagement reports without obtaining an engagement quality review and concurring approval of issuance. As a result, Stein violated PCAOB Rule 3502.

IV.

In view of the foregoing, and to protect the interests of investors and further the public interest in the preparation of informative, accurate, and independent audit reports, the Board determines it appropriate to impose the sanctions agreed to in Respondents' Offers.

Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED that:

- A. Pursuant to Section 105(c)(4)(E) of the Act and PCAOB Rule 5300(a)(5), Stein & Company, LLP and Jon H. Stein, CPA are hereby censured;

All funds collected by the Board as a result of the assessment of this civil money penalty will be used in accordance with Section 109(c)(2) of the Act. Stein & Company, LLP shall pay this civil money penalty within 10 days of the issuance of this Order by (1) wire transfer in accordance with instructions furnished by Board staff; or (2) United States Postal Service money order, certified check, bank cashier's check or bank money order (a) made payable to the Public Company
