To the shareholders and the board of directors of X Company

Opinion on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying balance sheets of X Company (the "Company") as of December 31, 20X2 and 20X1, the related statements of [titles of the financial statements, e.g., income, comprehensive income, stockholders' equity, and cash flows], for each of the three years in the period ended December 31, 20X2, and the related notes [and schedules] (collectively referred to as the "financial statements"). In our opinion, the financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of [at] December 31, 20X2 and 20X1, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for each of the three years in the period ended December 31, 20X2, in conformity with [the applicable financial reporting framework].
The auditor’s report must be addressed to the shareholders and the board of directors, or equivalents for companies not organized as corporations.

- For companies not organized as corporations:
  - Plan administrator and plan participants for benefit plans;
  - Directors (or equivalent) and equity owners for brokers or dealers; and
  - Trustees and unit holders or other investors for investment companies organized as trusts.

- The auditor's report may include additional addressees. The auditor can assess, based on the individual circumstances, whether or not to include additional addressees in the auditor's report.
Basis for Opinion

These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's financial statements based on our audits. We are a public accounting firm registered with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) ("PCAOB") and are required to be independent with respect to the Company in accordance with the U.S. federal securities laws and the applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the PCAOB.

We conducted our audits in accordance with the standards of the PCAOB. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement, whether due to error or fraud. Our audits included performing procedures to assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to error or fraud, and performing procedures that respond to those risks. Such procedures included examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. Our audits also included evaluating the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

Critical Audit Matters [if applicable]

[Signature]

We have served as the Company's auditor since [year].

[City and State or Country]

[Date]
Basic Elements and Form of Auditor’s Report - Auditor Independence

The auditor’s report must include a statement that the auditor is a public accounting firm registered with the PCAOB (United States) and is required to be independent with respect to the company in accordance with the U.S. federal securities laws and the applicable rules and regulations of the SEC and the PCAOB.

- This statement is required to be in the Basis for Opinion section.
Basic Elements and Form of Auditor’s Report – Other Enhancements

- Added new phrase whether due to error or fraud, when describing the auditor's responsibility under PCAOB standards to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement.

- Updated description of the nature of the audit to align with the language in the PCAOB's risk assessment standards.
New Auditor’s Report – Auditor Tenure

The auditor's report must include a statement containing the year the auditor began serving consecutively as the company's auditor.

- Determining Auditor Tenure
  - Reflect the entire relationship between the company and the auditor
    - The auditor's relationship with the company is not affected by the company's status as a public company
  - Calculate taking into account firm or company mergers, acquisitions, or changes in ownership structure
New Auditor’s Report – Auditor Tenure

Determining Auditor Tenure

- Look to the year when the firm signs an initial engagement letter to audit a company’s financial statements or when the firm begins performing audit procedures, whichever is earlier.
- If auditors cannot readily determine when an initial engagement letter was signed, they can determine tenure based on their own records, the company’s records, or publicly available information, such as company filings available on the SEC’s EDGAR system.
- In the absence of other evidence about when the auditor signed an initial engagement letter or began performing audit procedures, tenure can be determined based on the year in which the auditor first issued an audit report on the company’s financial statements or, if earlier, the auditor’s estimate of when work would have commenced to enable the issuance of such report.
Determining Auditor Tenure – Investment Company

- For an investment company that is part of a group of investment companies, the auditor's statement regarding tenure will contain the year the auditor began serving consecutively as the auditor of any investment company in the group of investment companies.

If Firm A has been auditing investment companies in XYZ group of investment companies since 1980, the current auditor's report for XYZ fixed income fund, whose inception date was in 2010, will state that Firm A has served as the auditor of one or more XYZ investment companies since 1980.
Determining Auditor Tenure – Other Entities

- If the auditor of the company's financial statements also audits the financial statements of related entities, auditor tenure is determined separately for each engagement.

Company W is the sponsor of an employee benefit plan that is subject to annual reporting on Form 11-K. Auditor ABC has been the auditor of Company W since 2002 and the auditor of Company W's employee benefit plan since 2011.

The auditor's report on Company W's financial statements would show that auditor tenure began in 2002. The auditor's report on the financial statements of Company W's employee benefit plan would show that auditor tenure began in 2011.

New Auditor’s Report – Auditor Tenure

- Reporting of Tenure
  - Auditors have discretion to provide additional information in the auditor’s report about tenure, if the information would provide context or otherwise assist the reader’s understanding of the relationship between the auditor and the company.

For example, when tenure is calculated taking into account the tenure of predecessor accounting firms and/or engagement by predecessors of the company under audit, the auditor may wish to provide information about these historical relationships.
Management Reports on ICFR with no Auditor Reporting

- In some circumstances, management is required to report on the company's ICFR but such report is not required to be audited, and the auditor is not engaged to perform an audit of management's assessment of the effectiveness of ICFR.

- In such cases, the auditor is required to include the following explanatory language in the Basis for Opinion section:

  The Company is not required to have, nor were we engaged to perform, an audit of its internal control over financial reporting. As part of our audits we are required to obtain an understanding of internal control over financial reporting but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion.
Management Reports on ICFR with no Auditor Reporting

Basis for Opinion
These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's financial statements based on our audits. We are a public accounting firm registered with the PCAOB and are required to be independent with respect to the Company in accordance with the U.S. federal securities laws and the applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the PCAOB.

We conducted our audits in accordance with the standards of the PCAOB. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement, whether due to error or fraud. The Company is not required to have, nor were we engaged to perform, an audit of its internal control over financial reporting. As part of our audits we are required to obtain an understanding of internal control over financial reporting but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion.

Our audits included performing procedures to assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to error or fraud, and performing procedures that respond to those risks. Such procedures included examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. Our audits also included evaluating the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.
Explanatory Paragraphs

The standard includes a list of circumstances with references to other PCAOB standards in which the auditor is required to include explanatory paragraph (or explanatory language) in the auditor's report. Those include, among others:

- Going concern (AS 2415, Consideration of an Entity's Ability to Continue as a Going Concern);
- Other auditors (AS 1205, Part of the Audit Performed by Other Independent Auditors);
- Change between periods in accounting principles or in the method of their application (AS 2820, Evaluating Consistency of Financial Statements); and
- A material misstatement in previously issued financial statements has been corrected (AS 2820).

Some PCAOB standards specify the location of required explanatory paragraphs within the auditor's report and may also have a requirement for an appropriate section title.

If the auditor is required to include an explanatory paragraph but the location is not specified, the paragraph may be placed where the auditor considers appropriate.
Emphasis Paragraphs

- Although not required, the standard includes the ability for the auditor to emphasize a matter regarding the financial statements (“emphasis paragraph”).

- Emphasis paragraph may be placed where the auditor considers appropriate.
