

Susan C. Gordon
Senior Vice President, Corporate Controller and
Chief Accounting Officer
CBS Corporation

Susan C. Gordon serves as Senior Vice President, Corporate Controller and Chief Accounting Officer of CBS Corporation. In this role, Gordon has overall responsibility for the controllership and financial reporting activities for CBS Corporation, which include the CBS Television Network, UPN, CBS Radio, CBS Outdoor, CBS Television Stations, CBS Paramount Television, King World, Simon & Schuster, Showtime and Paramount Parks. She had previously been Senior Vice President, Controller and Chief Accounting Officer of Viacom prior to the company's split.

Gordon had previously held a variety of senior financial management positions with Viacom, including Vice President, Controller and Chief Accounting Officer (1995-2002), Chief Financial Officer of Madison Square Garden (1994 to 1995), Vice President of Internal Audit (1986 to 1995), and Controller of the Viacom Broadcast Group (1985 to 1986). In these roles, Gordon had overall responsibility for Viacom's financial reporting, planning and budgeting, systems of internal controls, corporate and benefits accounting, international home offices finance functions, discontinued operations and administration of stock option activity. Prior to joining Viacom in 1981, Gordon was an auditor with the accounting firm of KPMG Peat Marwick.

A Certified Public Accountant, Gordon holds a bachelor's degree in economics from Lake Forest College and attended the master's in accountancy program at New York University's Graduate School of Business.